

Wujul Wujul Police Station

Client	Queensland Police
Number of artworks commissioned	1
Public Art project budget	$15,000

Untitled

Location	Main entry to Wujul Wujul Police Station
Artist	Jill Chism in partnership with local indigenous artists; Jason Smith, Russell Smith, Ruby Winkle and Adeline Williams
Medium	Laminated, toughened glass
Size	1.2m (h) x 1.8m (w)
Artwork fabrication cost	$14,250
Completion date	2008
Photos by	Jill Chism

Artwork statement

The work comprises a background image of the Wujul Wujul falls overlaid with images from paintings created by Wujul artists. Creating the work involved discussions with the guardians of the falls and collaborations with artists of Wujul Wujul. The eel or Yaba in the main totem for Wujul Wujul Falls. Other animals featured are snakes, turtles, goannas and fish.

Project Services
Queensland Government
Department of Public Works